General information about Ankara University

Ankara University is an institution that has identified and integrated the history and mission of the Republic of Turkey with its people. The establishment of the Republic of Turkey was much more than just a change in government. Similarly, the establishment of Ankara University represented the substantiation of a comprehensive mission and it was based on a system relying on modern science, modern democratic values and institutions. The foundation of Ankara University was personally initiated by the great Atatürk to form the basis of his principles and revolutionary ideas; to disseminate, firmly establish and defend these principles and ideas that express modernity, science and enlightenment.

About the 1st International Youth Workshop

Our aim in the 1st International Youth Workshop is to reflect the perspectives of the young generation to 21st century world problems and to seek a common solution to them. We are carrying out this activity to prepare a ground where students can express themselves comfortably and meet on a common ground. It is important for all of us what the participants will convey in this workshop, where different cultures and ideas will meet and people's awareness will be raised. While so many problems have accumulated in the world, we, as the youngest generation, think that these problems should be talked about. Details are written below.
